

Male Survivors Feedback: Key Points (2012 – 2019)

The feedback and counselling outcomes outlined below have been taken from our 'Evaluation of Counselling Service' feedback forms (from 2012-2019) and our 'Wellbeing Surveys' (from 2019), which have been completed by male clients after they have received RSVP counselling.

From 2012 to 2019

100%

of male survivors said they were satisfied with the counselling they received at RSVP.

From 2012 to 2019

96%

of male survivors felt that the room and environment in which they received counselling was comfortable.

“

My counsellor was by far the best I ever had. They understood me and knew how to help me. I couldn't have asked for a better experience, which ended up giving me a future to look forward to. ”

From 2012 to 2019

88%

of male survivors said that counselling has helped them deal with any problems better in the future.

From 2012 to 2019

85%

of male survivors rated their wellbeing as “good” or “very good” following counselling.

In 2019

61%

of male survivors felt more sociable following counselling.

“

I now feel much better equipped to continue with life. Thank you. ”

From 2012 to 2019

75%

of male survivors we supported in counselling felt that the waiting times before being seen by RSVP were acceptable.

Male Survivors Feedback: Key Points (2012 – 2019)

In 2019

50%

of male survivors felt they had better relationships following counselling.

“ [my counsellor] was so easy to talk to and inspired confidence within me. I've achieved great progress in my life. ”

“ The tools she gave me have helped shape my future. I will never forget the work she did to get me back on my feet. ”

In 2019

59%

of male survivors felt more able to trust following counselling.

From 2012 to 2019

94%

of male survivors said that counselling has helped them to sort out their concerns, worries and fears.

In 2019

57%

of male survivors felt more able to make decisions following counselling.

In 2019

74%

of male survivors felt safer following counselling.