

Frequently Asked Fundraising Questions

- What is the best way to fundraise online?

It's so easy to set up a fundraising webpage. Websites like justgiving.com and localgiving.org allow fundraisers to set up a donation page that you can share with friends and family online. Your supporters can donate directly via these websites meaning your donations are transferred quickly and safely to RSVP.

- How do I start fundraising for RSVP online?

To begin fundraising via Local Giving, visit localgiving.org/charity/rsvp-wm/ and click 'Fundraise for Us'. Follow the next steps to set up a fundraising page.

To begin fundraising via Just Giving, visit www.justgiving.com to search for RSVP (The Rape and Sexual Violence Project) and select 'Start Fundraising'. Follow the next steps to set up a fundraising page

Once your fundraising page has been set up, you will be able to share it via text or to your social media platforms.

- Can RSVP give me any support with fundraising activities?

Yes! We can offer support and advice to help you throughout your fundraising journey. Get in touch via our info@rsvporg.co.uk email address or contact our fundraiser directly via sophie@rsvporg.co.uk.

- How do I become a Fundraising Friend volunteer?

We have a variety of fantastic opportunities available to volunteers who would like to support our fundraising activities and become a member of our Fundraising Friends group. You can apply to become a Fundraising Friend via Dolt.org or contact sophie@rsvporg.co.uk to express your interest.

- I want to Fundraise but don't know where to start. Where can I find inspiration?

Our 'Ways you can support us' page contains a FREE Fundraising Guide. You can download this to gain inspiration and see what other fundraisers have been up to in order to support survivors. Equally, feel free to contact our fundraiser Sophie who will be able to advise you.
